

Holabie, Broughton Cross. FUL/2024/0158

Two trenches were dug along the eastern and western edge of the site. The trench ranged from 2.2m to 2,4m in depth.

After the trench was dug there was heavy rain and there is an element of water pooling at the lowest point to the north of the trenches. No culvert was found along the whole length of the trench.